

JGI, Inc.
ISO9001:2008
2017 Quality Policy

We forward to the future with the solution of energy and environmental problem.

We shall contribute to rich and varied social creation including the enhancement of utilization, the environment disaster prevention information of underground resources through the offer of wide experience and the physical exploration service based on the superior technique.

Basic policy

We establish the next matter as a basic policy on inflecting with the construction of the quality management system.

1. We comply with a regulation, requirements and company rule.
2. We plan the continuous improvement of the physical exploration technology and always aim at the top of the industry.
3. We meet customer's needs and keep service to lead to the profit of the customer in mind and realize active suggestion.
4. We order the improvement of the continuous duties by the action based on a plan to embody this quality policy based on quality target and a quality accomplishment plan. In addition, I promise the offer of financial resources necessary for this.
5. We always perform reviews of the quality management systems continuously to plan improvement of the customer satisfaction in response to a social environmental change.

2017 policy

- We support various needs of ocean study, environmental research, the disaster prevention and geothermal-related investigation.
- We aim at gain of the middle scale survey in the oil and gas field, in particularly Indonesia.
- We plan to improve our technology to meet customer requests and reflect to our business line.
- We shall re-arrange the adequate human resources and equipment.
- We shall pursuance the original services.
- We plan the efficiency of duties using numerical indicators.